At the Court at St. James's, April 7. 1713.

PRESENT

The Queen's Moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Hon. Simon Lord Harcourt, Baron of Stanton Harcourt, Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Great Britain, having by Her Majeſty's Command, delivered to Her Majeſty in Council, the Great Seal of Great Britain, Her Majeſty was graciouſly pleaſed immediately to reſtore it to him again, with the Title of Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain; whereupon his Lordſhip took the Oaths appointed to be taken, inſtead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and alſo the Oath of Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain.

This Day his Grace John Duke of Athol, was, by Her Majeſty's Command, Sworn One of the Lords of Her Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

This Day the Right Hon. Peregrine Hyde, Lord Marquis of Carmarthen, took the Oaths appointed to be taken inſtead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, his Lordſhip being Lord Lieutenant of the Eaſt Riding of York, and of the Town of Kingſton upon Hull.

Weſtminſter, April 9. This Day Her Majeſty came to the Houſe of Peers, and being in Her Royal Robes, ſeated on the Throne with the uſual Solemnity, Sir William Oldes, Gentleman-Uſher of the Black Rod, was ſent with a Meſſage from Her Majeſty to the Houſe of Commons, requiring their Attendance in the Houſe of Peers; the Commons being come thither accordingly, Her Majeſty was pleaſed to make the following moſt gracious Speech to both Houſes.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I Ended the laſt Seſſion with my hearty Thanks for the Solemn Aſſurances you had given me, by which I have been enabled to overcome the Difficulties contriv'd to obſtruct the General Peace.

I have deferr'd the Opening the Seſſion until now, being deſirous to Communicate to you, at your firſt Meeting, the Succeſs of this Important Affair; It is therefore with great Pleaſure I tell you the Treaty is Signed, and in a few Days the Ratifications will be Exchanged.

The Negotiation has been drawn into ſo great a Length, that all our Allies have had ſufficient Opportunity to adjuſt their ſeveral Intereſts, though the Publick Charge has been thereby much encreaſed; yet I hope my People will be eaſie under it, ſince We have happily obtained the End We propoſed.

What I have done for Securing the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and the perfect Friendſhip there is between Me and the Houſe of Hanover, may Convince ſuch who Wiſh well to Both, and deſire the Quiet and Safety of their Country, how vain all Attempts are to Divide Us, and thoſe who would make a Merit by Separating Our Intereſts, will never attain their ill Ends.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

As great a Progreſs has been made in Reducing the Publick Expence, as the Circumſtances of Affairs would admit.

What Force may be neceſſary for Securing Our Commerce by Sea, and for Guards and Garriſons, I leave entirely to My Parliament.

Make your ſelves Safe, and I ſhall be Satisfied.

Next to the Protection of the Divine Providence, I depend upon the Loyalty and Affection of my People.

I want no other Guarranty.

I recommend to your Care thoſe Brave Men who have ſerved well by Sea or Land this War, and cannot be Imploy'd in time of Peace.

I muſt deſire you to provide the Supplies you ſhall judge requiſite, and to give ſuch Diſpatch as may be neceſſary for your own Eaſe and the Publick Service.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The many Advantages I have obtained for My own Subjects, have occaſioned much Oppoſition, and long delay to this Peace.

It affords Me great Satisfaction, that My People will have it in their Power, by degrees, to repair what they have ſuffered during ſo long and burdenſome a War.

The Eaſing Our Foreign Trade, as far as is conſiſtent with National Credit, will deſerve your Care.

And to think of proper Methods for improving and encouraging Our Home Trade and Manufactures, particularly the Fiſhery, which may be carry'd on to employ all our ſpare Hands, and be a mighty Benefit even to the remoteſt Parts of this Kingdom.

Several Matters were laid before you laſt Seſſion, which the Weight and Multiplicity of other Buſi-neſs would not permit you to perfect; I hope you will take a proper Opportunity to give them due Conſideration.

I cannot however but expreſly mention My Diſpleaſure at the Unparallel'd Licentiouſneſs in publiſhing Seditious and Scandalous Libels.

The Impunity ſuch Practices have met with, has encouraged the Blaſpheming every Thing Sacred, and the Propagating Opinions tending to the Overthrow of all Religion and Government.

Proſecutions have been order'd, but it will require ſome New Law to put a Stop to this growing Evil, and your beſt Endeavours in your reſpective Stations to Diſcourage it.

The Impious Practice of Duelling requires ſome ſpeedy and effectual Remedy.

Now we are entring upon Peace Abroad, let Me Conjure you all to uſe your utmoſt Endeavours for calming Mens Minds at Home, That the Arts of Peace may be Cultivated.

Let not groundleſs Jealouſies, contriv'd by a Faction, and fomented by Party-Rage, effect that which our Foreign Enemies could not.

I pray God to direct all your Conſultations for His Glory and the Welfare of my People.

Hanover, April 14. N. S. The Chapter of Hildeſheim hath ſent Deputies to Hamburg, to repreſent to Count Schonborn, the Emperor's Miniſter, that the Imperial Troops Quarter'd in that Dioceſs, have not conformed themſelves to the Regulations ſettled with him. Yeſterday Count Wehlen, who Commands thoſe Forces, received Orders from the Court of Vienna, to March with them immediately into Flanders. The Abbot de Lecheraine is gone from hence to Utrecht, in order to ſollicit his being reſtored to the Benefices he enjoy'd in France, and which he quitted upon Account of the War, being Born a Subject of the Duke of Savoy. We have received Advice from Pomerania, that the Muſcovites have burnt the City of Wolgaſt, without ſuffering the Inhabitants to withdraw their Effects from thence. They threaten ſeveral other Places with the ſame Fate, though the Danes uſe all poſſible Endeavours to diſſwade them from ſuch Practices. By a Letter from Monſieur Fabrice, dated from Bender the 5th of March, we are informed that King Staniſlaus was returned thither, and that he had been very civilly treated by the Turks. He adds, That there was great probability the King of Sweden's Affairs would be reſtored, moſt of the Janiſaries having declared openly for him. They write from Poland, that an Aga was arrived at Lamberg, being ſent to aſſure King Auguſtus and the Republick, that the Port would maintain a good Correſpondence with them, provided they did not aſſiſt the Muſcovites.

Bruſſels, April 15. N. S. Two Days ago Monſieur Beringhen paſs'd through this Place on his way to the Court of France, being diſpatched thither Expreſs by the French Ambaſſadors, with the Treaty of Peace ſigned on the 11th by Her Majeſty's Ambaſſadors and thoſe of France. He brought an account, that the Treaties of Peace between France, Portugal, Pruſſia, the States-General and Savoy, were likewiſe ſigned the ſame Day. Upon this Advice, Count Felz, who commands the Emperor's Forces here, ſent an Expreſs to his Plenipotentiaries at Utrecht, in order to be informed of his Imperial Majeſty's Intentions in relation to his Troops at preſent in theſe Countries. Count Tilly, General in chief of the Dutch Forces, arrived here yeſterday from Liege.

Utrecht, April 18. N. S. On the 13th the Plenipotentiaries of the Emperor and of the States-General, had a Conference, in Preſence of thoſe of Her Majeſty, upon the Subject of the Barrier-Treaty. The next Morning Count Sinzendorff was again with their Lordſhips, and on the 15th he took leave of them, and ſet out for Frankfort, where it is ſaid he is to meet Prince Eugene, in order to conſult with him upon the preſent Poſture of Affairs: He intends to return hither in a ſhort time. Yeſterday a Conference was held at the Town-houſe, as uſual, among the Miniſters of the Allies. This Afternoon Monſieur Meſnager was in Conference with thoſe of Her Majeſty. The Duke d'Oſſuna, Plenipotentiary of the King of Spain, is expected here to Morrow. The Paſſports for the Miniſters of the Electors of Cologne and Bavaria have been delivered to thoſe of France, who have ſent them by a Courier to Paris. Baron Schack, who is appointed Envoy-Extraordinary from the Czar to Her Majeſty, is arrived here, and intends to proceed to Great Britain in a few Days.

Whitehall, April 10. Her Majeſty hath been graciouſly pleaſed to conſtitute his Grace the Duke of Ormond, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Norfolk.

The Paymaſter of the ſtanding Orders, given out in Exchange for Tickets in the Lottery for 1,500,000 l. Anno 1711, do hereby give Notice, That at Lady-day laſt the Sum of 13,740 l. was reſerved in the Exchequer, to pay Principal on the Orders in the 5*th Courſe, to Number* 152, and 90 l. in part of the Order, Number 153, in the ſaid 5*th Courſe; and that there was then ſufficient Money to clear all Intereſt due on all the ſtanding Orders in or at any time before Lady-day laſt.*

The principal Officers and Commiſſioners of Her Majeſty's Navy having received a Letter dated the 8*th Inſtant, Sign'd* A. S. offering to diſcover ſome Perſons that counterfeit Bills of Sale and Letters of Attorney, &c. theſe are to give notice, That if
